Calento:

Captures the contemporary styling demanded in today's modern washing environment, but maintains the design integrity to coordinate with any style at an affordable price.

Incorporating state-of-the-art technology and elegant contemporary design, our range of automatic sensor tapware provides a convenient and hygienic water dispensing solution for the modern home, and is also ideal for use in surgeries, rest homes, restaurants, factories, hospitals and public washrooms.

How do they work?

The battery operated taps operate by means of an infrared sensor. When a user's hands enter the effective range, the solenoid activates the water flow. The water will remain flowing until the hands are removed. The tap will then automatically shut off.
